Dewayne Hall of Red Feather Farms and Pat Cotten of Bending Tree Ranch lead the Goat Education Center, offering practical instruction and hands-on demonstrations to help homesteaders raise healthy goats. Pat brings more than 30 years of meat-goat experience, specializing in Myotonic and TexMaster goats. A GoatCamp instructor and Meat Goat Mania contributor, she teaches practical herd management and animal-care skills. Dewayne is a national homesteading speaker and former agriculture and biology teacher. His approach to livestock care and sustainable living reflects his motto, "Homesteading on a Budget."
